

Psychiatry in the General Hospital: The State of the Art
A Festschrift for Professor Michael Sharpe
Programme

09:30-09:45	Welcome and introduction Dr Luke Solomons, Dr Susan Shaw & Prof Andrew Brent, Oxford University Hospitals NHSFT
09:45-10:20	Psychosocial care for parents living with advanced cancer and their families Prof Don Rosenstein, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, USA
10:20-10:55	Collaborative care for depression in the medically ill: experience in oncology Dr Luke Solomons, Oxford University Hospitals NHSFT
10:55-11:15	Break
11:15-11:50	Functional neurological disorders: past, present and future Prof Jon Stone, University of Edinburgh
11:50-12:15	In the spirit of integration: care for young people with functional disorders Prof Charlotte Rask, Aarhus University, Denmark
12:15-13:00	Lunch
13:00-14:00	Fatigue (Grand Round Lecture) Prof Michael Sharpe, University of Oxford & Prof Paul Garner, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine
14:00-14:15	Break
14:15-14:50	The changing face of symptom research – from MUS to long covid Prof Alan Carson, University of Edinburgh
14:50-15:25	Assisted dying, assisted suicide, and the space in between: psychiatry and the state at the end of life Dr Stephen Potts, Edinburgh Royal Infirmary
15:25-15:45	Break
15:45-16:20	Supportive psychotherapy with the severely medically ill Prof Wolfgang Söllner, Paracelsus Medical University Nuremberg, Germany
16:20-16:45	Going home: proactive integrated psychiatry for older medical inpatients Dr Jane Walker, University of Oxford
16:45-17:00	Closing remarks Dr Luke Solomons & Dr Susan Shaw, Oxford University Hospitals NHSFT